

Bellamy's Reserve Rum Rye Cask Finish marks another exceptional quality of the new Bellamy's Reserve Rum series. The blended rum consists of 5-12 year old distillates from the Caribbean and is finished for 8 months in former rye casks. The first batch of this edition offers 800 bottles.

A rum from Barbados lends a full-bodied component to the blend, which is complemented by the fruit of Jamaica and a uniquely smooth rum from the Dominican Republic. All in all, Bellamy's Reserve Rum Rye Cask leaves an aromatic and at the same time powerful impression with high levels of complexity.
